

Hi, my name is Lillian and I'm _____ (will answer / answering) the question, have you ever had a big break or really _____ (unfortunate / fortunate) event that changed your life?

And yes, I had _____ (one / won). Because of my good grades in school, I was able to _____ (obtain / maintain) a scholarship to Estoria, one of the best schools in my _____ (country / county). And as a result, I _____ (meet / met) the US Ambassador in my country. It was a wonderful opportunity for me because thanks to the _____ (relationships / relationship) that my school had with the scholarship _____ (programming / program) from the US Embassy, I was also able to get _____ (certified / certification) as a professional _____ (translator / translation) through another scholarship.

And, I also got my visa to _____ (work / walk) in the US if I wanted to _____ (in / at) the future. So, to be honest, I never _____ (thinking / thought) I would have that opportunity. But since I started _____ (studies / studying), I have had good results always. So, I can say that I do not regret _____ (in / at) all always giving my best in all my _____ (projects / project).
