

Video 648 What do you miss about your country?

Hi, my name is Sarah. I _____ [course/comes/ones/come] from England. And my question is what do you miss about your home country?

So _____ [course/currently/definitely/especially] I am living in Thailand. I've been _____ [main/holiday/living/festive] here for the past six years now, six, seven _____ [years/start/ones/first] . And yeah, I love it here, but there's _____ [definitely/first/especially/currently] things I miss about England, _____ [biggest/Christmas/festive/first] of all, my friends and my family, of _____ [comes/currently/course/come] . I think that is the _____ [living/Christmas/definitely/main] thing, especially when it _____ [ones/course/comes/come] to Christmas, birthdays, any type of _____ [Christmas/holiday/especially/cold] , New Year, anything. I really _____ [start/years/first/Christmas] to miss home. And I even miss the _____ [holiday/cold/come/comes] weather and the snow when it gets to _____ [Christmas/holiday/start/first] time, which I'd never _____ [start/course/thought/holiday] I'd say about England.

But yeah, I think it's a lot more _____ [ones/biggest/festive/first] at home during holidays and _____ [especially/currently/festive/definitely] when you're surrounded by your loved _____ [years/comes/come/ones] . So yeah, definitely the _____ [festive/together/first/biggest] thing I miss at home is friends, family, and sharing the holidays _____ [together/ones/biggest/festive] .
