

What kind of dessert do you like?

Olivia / USA

Part 1: Listen to the conversation and answer the questions.

1	What is her favorite dessert?	2	What type of cookie does Olivia always get at a bakery?	3	What dessert does she say is classic?
a	Fudge brownie	a	Peanut butter	a	Ice cream
b	Hot fudge sundae	b	Chocolate chip	b	Cheesecake

Part 2: Put the following words in the text.

wrong / traditional / classic / plenty / long / came / priority / prefer / much / gooey

Hi, I am Olivia. I'm from Washington DC, right now I live in London, and my question is, what kind of dessert do I like?

I love so many different desserts. Dessert is honestly my favorite thing to eat. I pretty much eat dinner and lunch so that I can have dessert. That's like number one _____ for me. So the list is _____, but my favorite desserts, if I had to pick them, would be a chocolate fudge brownie, specifically fudge, because I like it to be very _____ and moist.

I like a chocolate chip cookie. A chocolate chip cookie is classic. You can't go _____. Pretty _____ every bakery I go to, I will always get a chocolate chip cookie cause I know it's going to be good. I _____ it when they're soft, but I don't mind a hard chocolate chip cookie every once in a while.

Gosh, I love cheesecake so much. I like the way it's cooked both ways. So a bask cheesecake and their _____ cheesecake. And I love cheesecake with different flavors, like a chocolate marble cheesecake, a bischoff cheesecake, a lemon cheesecake. You can't go wrong. Ice cream, a _____. I love ice cream. I eat ice cream even in the winter. I love cake in general. Birthday cake is fantastic.

I don't—there's not many desserts that I hate, but in my opinion, I think desserts should be more indulgent. So, like a fruit dessert, I'm not as interested in. That to me is like a healthy-ish snack. I want chocolate basically. So yeah, there's my long list of desserts. There's _____ more where that _____ from.

Answer Key

What kind of dessert do you like? Olivia / USA
--	---

Part 1: Listen to the conversation and answer the questions.

1	What is her favorite dessert?	2	What type of cookie does Olivia always get at a bakery?	3	What dessert does she say is classic?
a	Fudge brownie	a	Peanut butter	a	Ice cream
b	Hot fudge sundae	b	Chocolate chip	b	Cheesecake

Part 2: Put the following words in the text.

wrong / traditional / classic / plenty / long / came / priority / prefer / much / gooey

Hi, I am Olivia. I'm from Washington DC, right now I live in London, and my question is, what kind of dessert do I like?

I love so many different desserts. Dessert is honestly my favorite thing to eat. I pretty much eat dinner and lunch so that I can have dessert. That's like number one priority for me. So the list is long, but my favorite desserts, if I had to pick them, would be a chocolate fudge brownie, specifically fudge, because I like it to be very gooey and moist.

I like a chocolate chip cookie. A chocolate chip cookie is classic. You can't go wrong. Pretty much every bakery I go to, I will always get a chocolate chip cookie cause I know it's going to be good. I prefer it when they're soft, but I don't mind a hard chocolate, chocolate chip cookie every once in a while.

Gosh, I love cheesecake so much. I like the way it's cooked both ways. So a bask cheesecake and their traditional cheesecake. And I love cheesecake with different flavors, like a chocolate marble cheesecake, a biscoff cheesecake, a lemon cheesecake. You can't go wrong. Ice cream, a classic. I love ice cream. I eat ice cream even in the winter. I love cake in general. Birthday cake is fantastic.

I don't—there's not many desserts that I hate, but in my opinion, I think desserts should be more indulgent. So, like a fruit dessert, I'm not as interested in. That to me is like a healthy-ish snack. I want chocolate basically. So yeah, there's my long list of desserts. There's plenty more where that came from.

gooey

Meaning: Soft, sticky, and slightly melted inside.

Examples:

- The chocolate brownie was so gooey and delicious.
- I love when the cheese in my sandwich is gooey and warm.

You can't go wrong

Meaning: A phrase used to say that something is always a good choice.

Examples:

- You can't go wrong with a classic chocolate chip cookie.
- If you're looking for a great movie, you can't go wrong with this one.

There's plenty more where that came from

Meaning: There is a lot more of something available.

Examples:

- If you love chocolate, there's plenty more where that came from!
- Don't worry about running out of snacks—there's plenty more where that came from.

number one priority

Meaning: The most important thing to someone.

Examples:

- Finishing my assignment is my number one priority today.
- Her number one priority is spending time with her family.

the list is long

Meaning: There are many things to mention.

Examples:

- When it comes to my favorite foods, the list is long.
- The list is long, but my top travel destinations are Japan, Italy, and France.