

Hello, my name ____ (of / is) Chanel and I'm from the United States. And my question is, ____ (what / when) kind of music is not your ____ (tasty / taste)?

Well, for me, I don't really too much ____ (like / live) rock music. Now, I'm not a ____ (big / bit) music person in general, but that is one genre ____ (for / of) music that I'm not too ____ (fond / find) of. When I do listen to music, I like it to have a ____ (certainly / certain) beat, a certain rhythm, certain tempo. So a lot of ____ (time / times) I like to sit and be laid-back ____ (in / and) kind of just jam.

So the type of ____ (musician / music) that's not my taste will be rock. That's a little ____ (but / bit) fast, faster paced, more loud. I can't really keep ____ (with / up) the different rhythms and the timbres that it has going ____ (at / with) it. So that is just not my style. When I have listened to rock ____ (behind / before), it was more of a soft rock, a more... ____ (ever / even) had a ____ (little / small) bit of an R&B type ____ (flair / flare) to it. So if I were to ____ (saying / say) that the music that is not my taste, it would be rock music.

What ____ (and / about) you? What type of music is not ____ (you're / your) taste?
