

Hello, my name is Rocio, and I'm from El Salvador. My _____ (question / quest) is, have you ever observed _____ (sketch / sketchy) behavior before?

_____ (And / At) the answer is yes. There was this one _____ (time / town) where I was at the mall _____ (waiting / waiter) for a friend, and I remember that there was this man in front of _____ (me / my), maybe like five feet apart, that he was walking in _____ (circular / circus) motions. I wasn't really sure why. But he _____ (keep / kept) looking at me and I didn't really know _____ (who / why).

I had my headphones _____ (on / in), so I thought that maybe he wanted to sit _____ (out / down) or maybe he just wanted to ask me _____ (something / same thing). So I removed my headphones and he never really said _____ (anywhere / anything), but he just kept walking in circular _____ (motion / motions) and kept looking at me. I got really _____ (uncommon / uncomfortable) and then I just sort of _____ (left / laughed) because he was really freaking me _____ (over / out).

Now, thankfully, it didn't really _____ (escalator / escalate) to anything further. But yeah, I mean that was a pretty sketchy _____ (behaving / behavior) that I sort of identified. And I feel like _____ (whenever / whatever) you identify sort of those moments, I feel like it's better to be _____ (safety / safe) than sorry, I guess. Just try to get as far _____ (a way / away) from that situation as possible. But what _____ (for / about) you? Have you experienced sketchy _____ (behaviors / behave) before from random _____ (stronger / strangers)?
