

Hi, my name is Saif and I'm from Pakistan. _____ (And / But) my question is, if I could change my _____ (national / nationality), what would it be?

If I could _____ (change / charge) my nationality, I would change it to the nationality of the _____ (world / word). I don't just want to belong to a single _____ (nationality / nations). Rather, I want the _____ (entirely / entire) globe to be my nation. I want the freedom to _____ (room / roam) around the world without a _____ (spatial / special) permit, a visa, or in an _____ (invitations / invitation). I don't want to be _____ (branded / branding) a particular nation: for example, Pakistani, Indian, _____ (Japanese / Japan), African or American. I want to be _____ (known / know) by who I am and not _____ (who / where) I'm from. Earth is my nation. Hence, in my _____ (opinions / opinion), we should drop the notion of being nation-_____ (centric / center) and focus on uniting as one, the human _____ (rate / race), and thus be earth-centric.
